14. The terms “electronic control unit,” “electronic control module,” or “ECM” mean a device that receives inputs from various sensors and puts out signals to control engine, vehicle, or equipment functions. The ECM uses software programming including calculations and tables of information to provide the appropriate outputs. Multiple electronic control modules may be incorporated in a single unit to control various engine, vehicle, or equipment functions. ECM is used in this Information Request as a generic term, but may refer specifically to the engine control module when discussing emission controls on vehicles and engines. Examples of ECMs include, but are not limited to, the Engine Control Module, OBD Control Modules, Powertrain Control Module (“PCM”), Transmission Control Module (“TCM”), Body Control Module (“BCM”) and aftertreatment control module.

19. The terms “onboard diagnostics” or “OBD” includes systems that monitor, detect, and report malfunctions of all monitored emission-related parts and elements of design through a network of sensors installed throughout a motor vehicle or motor vehicle engine. If an OBD detects a problem it responds by, among other things, recording a Diagnostic Trouble Code (“DTC”), illuminating a Malfunction Indicator Light (“MIL”) or other warning lamp on the vehicle instrument panel, and/or providing information to the ECM which induces engine derate due to malfunctioning or missing emission-related systems.
20. The terms “exhaust gas recirculation” or “EGR” includes systems that reduce NO_x emissions by recirculating exhaust gas through the engine, thereby reducing engine temperature and NO_x emissions.
21. The term “diesel particulate filter” or “DPF” refers to a part or element of design that reduces the level of particulate matter (“PM”) contained in engine exhaust gas.
22. The term “manufacture” includes the creation, design, development, alteration, fabrication, production, or programming of a software code, software, hardware, program, element of design, calibration, engine tune, engine tuner, device, part, or component.
23. The term “engine derate” or “limp-home mode” means an ECM mode that reduces the engine power after the OBD system identifies a problem with an emission-related system.
24. The term “catalysts” means systems or devices which increase the rate of a chemical reaction but are not one of the original reactants or final products, i.e., the catalyst is not consumed or altered in the reaction. The term “catalysts” includes emission control catalysts that are exhaust aftertreatment devices such as diesel oxidation catalysts (“DOCs”) and NO_x adsorption catalysts (“NACs”).

25. The term “aftertreatment” refers collectively to emission related parts or elements of design “mounted downstream of the exhaust valve . . . whose design function is to reduce emissions in the engine exhaust before it is exhausted to the environment.” See 40 C.F.R. § 1068.30.

Appendix D

Confidential Business Information

An entity may assert a business confidentiality claim covering all or part of the information provided in response to this Information Request for any business information entitled to confidential treatment under Section 208(c) of the CAA, 42 U.S.C. § 7542, and 40 C.F.R. Part 2, subpart B. Under Section 208(c) of the CAA, entities are entitled to confidential treatment of information that would divulge methods or processes entitled to protection as trade secrets. Under 40 C.F.R. Part 2, subpart B, business confidentiality means “the concept of trade secrecy and other related legal concepts which give (or may give) a business the right to preserve the confidentiality of business information and to limit its use or disclosure by others in order that the business may obtain or retain business advantages it derives from its rights in the information.” 40 C.F.R. § 2.201(e).

Information covered by a claim of business confidentiality will be disclosed by the EPA only to the extent, and by means of the procedures, set forth in Section 208(c) of the CAA and 40 C.F.R. Part 2, subpart B. EPA will construe a failure to furnish a business confidentiality claim with a response to this Information Request as a waiver of that claim, and the information may be made available to the public without further notice.

Pursuant to 40 C.F.R. § 2.301(h), the EPA possesses the authority to disclose to any authorized representative of the United States information which might otherwise be entitled to confidential treatment. To assist in its review and analysis, the EPA may disclose information provided in response to this Information Requests to an EPA contractor, the Eastern Research Group, under contract number EP-W-15-006. An entity may submit any comments to the EPA with its assertion of a business confidentiality claim.

To assert a business confidentiality claim, an entity must place on (or attach to) all information subject to the claim either a cover sheet, stamped or typed legend, or other suitable form of notice employing language such as “trade secret,” “proprietary,” or “company confidential” at the time it provides its response to this Information Request. Allegedly confidential portions of otherwise non-confidential documents should be clearly identified, and may be provided separately to facilitate identification and handling by the EPA. An entity should indicate whether confidential treatment is only required until a certain date or until the occurrence of a certain event.

The criteria the EPA will use in determining whether material claimed as business confidential is entitled to confidential treatment are set forth at 40 C.F.R. §§ 2.208 and 2.301. These regulations provide, among other things, that an entity must satisfactorily show that: (1) the information is within the scope of business confidentiality as defined at 40 C.F.R. § 2.201(e), (2) that it has taken reasonable measures to protect the confidentiality of the information and that it intends to continue to do so, (3) the information is not and has not been reasonably obtainable by legitimate means without its consent, and (4) the disclosure of the information is likely to cause substantial harm to its business’s competitive edge. See 40 C.F.R. §§ 2.208 (a)-(e). Emission data, as defined at 40 C.F.R. § 2.301(a)(2), is expressly not entitled to confidential treatment under 40 C.F.R. Part 2, subpart B. See 42 U.S.C. § 7542(c); 40 C.F.R. § 2.301(e).

If an entity asserts a claim of business confidentiality in connection with information and documents forwarded in response to this Information Request, in accordance with 40 C.F.R. § 2.204(e)(4), it must answer the following questions with respect to any information or document for which it asserts a claim of business confidentiality:

1. What specific portions of the information are allegedly to be entitled to confidential treatment? Specify by page, paragraph, and sentence when identifying the information subject to the claim.
2. For what period of time do You request that the information be maintained as confidential (e.g., until a certain date, until the occurrence of a specified event or permanently)? If the occurrence of a specific event will eliminate the need for confidentiality, specify that event. Additionally, explain why the information should be protected for the time period You have specified.
3. What measures have You taken to protect the information claimed as confidential from undesired disclosure? Have You disclosed the information to anyone other than a governmental body or someone who is bound by an agreement not to disclose the information further? If so, why should the information still be considered confidential?
4. Is the information contained in any publicly available material such as the Internet, publicly available databases, promotional publications, annual reports or articles? Is there any means by which a member of the public could obtain access to the information? Is the information of a kind that You would customarily not release to the public?
5. Has any governmental body made a determination as to the confidentiality of the information? If so, please attach a copy of the determination.
6. For each category of information claimed as confidential, explain with specificity whether disclosure of the information is likely to result in substantial harm to Your competitive position. Explain the specific nature of that harm, why they should be viewed as substantial, and the causal relationship between disclosure and such harmful effect. How could Your competitors make use of this information to Your detriment?
7. Is there any other explanation You deem relevant to the EPA's determination of Your business confidentiality claim that is not covered in the preceding requests? If so, You may provide such additional explanation.

An entity must furnish responses to the above questions concurrent with its response to this Information Request if it has claimed any information as business confidential. See 40 C.F.R. § 2.204(e)(2). Pursuant to 40 C.F.R. § 2.205(b)(2), an entity may request an extension of this deadline.

The EPA will construe a failure to furnish timely responses to the above questions as a waiver of any confidentiality claim, consistent with 40 C.F.R. § 2.204(e)(1). Please provide responses to:

Richard Kan
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency – Region 2
290 Broadway, 21st Floor
New York, NY 10007

Pursuant to 40 C.F.R. § 2.205(c), be hereby advised that information provided as part of any comments may be entitled to confidential treatment if, when it is received by the EPA, it is marked in accordance with 40 C.F.R. § 2.203(b). As required by 40 C.F.R. § 2.204(e)(6), an entity may assert a business confidentiality claim covering all or part of its response to these Requests, as provided in 40 C.F.R. § 2.203(b). Information covered by such a business confidentiality claim will be disclosed by the EPA only to the extent, and by means of the procedures, set forth in Section 208(c) of the CAA and 40 C.F.R. Part 2. The EPA will construe the failure to furnish a confidentiality claim with the comments as a waiver of that claim, and the information may be made available to the public without further notice.
